

Before he retired,
while he still
had the money,
he bought a
stub-nosed 38 special.
He bought it
for two reasons:
to protect his wife & himself in a tough neighborhood & as a tool
to release him
to heaven.

CITY LIMITS

When he's home he keeps a loaded Government Model 380 holstered
inside his pants,
behind a loose shirt,
easy to reach. Five unlucky persons have been beaten or shot
to death within a
mile of his home.
The feel of deadly
steel close to his genitals ironically
relieves his anxiety.
